FRIDAY PENANCE AND ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT In order to clear up any confusion, the Bishops of England and Wales have ruled that we should all abstain from eating meat on Fridays throughout the year (unless, of course, Christmas Day or another solemnity falls on the Friday, and also the Friday of the Easter Octave). The decision to return to this practice for all Catholics in England and Wales was announced by the Bishops' Conference, and has been in effect since Friday 16th, 2011. The Bishops looked again at the role of devotions and the practice of penance, both of which can help to weave the Catholic faith into the fabric of everyday life. Our regular worship at Holy Mass on Sunday, the day of the Lord's resurrection, is the most powerful outward sign and witness of our faith in Jesus Christ to our family, friends and neighbours. Sunday must always remain at the heart of our lives as Catholics.

REFRESHMENTS IN THE HALL & CHILDREN'S LITURGY will stop for the summer holiday (last Sunday being today, 22nd July). They will recommence at the beginning of September.
